MEDIA ADVISORY

September 5, 2018 (Portland, Ore.) — Join us one week from today on September 12-13, 2018 in Portland, Oregon for the Shades of Green Forum, produced by Prisma Point. This two-day conference will bring together a diverse group of professionals from around the country for a candid discussion about the state of diversity within the energy industry, as well as a facilitated workshop around diversity best practices, strategies and actions.

Attendees will leave with meaningful takeaways that can be implemented to move organizations further along the path to diversity, inclusion and equity. Attendees will include utility professionals, energy consultants, HR professionals, program managers and designers, marketing specialists, and high-level decision makers.

Keynote speakers:

- Ronald Brisé | Government Affairs Consultant, Gunster (Former Florida Public Service Commissioner & Former Co-Chair of National Utilities Diversity Council)
- Anne Dougherty | Co-Founder, ILLUME
- Van Jones | President & Founder, Dream Corps and CNN political contributor
- Timothy Alan Simon | Counsel/Consultant, TAS STRATEGIES, Commissioner Emeritus, California Public Utilities Commission

Notable session speakers Include:

- Rukaiyah Adams | Chief Investment Officer, Meyer Memorial Trust
- Laurie Dowling | Executive Director, National Utilities Diversity Council

- Paula Glover | President and CEO, American Association of Blacks in Energy
- Gwendolyn Keyes Fleming | Partner, Van Ness Feldman - Former Chief of Staff, Environmental Protection Agency
